1. Hi. This is theodore cottingham March 7, 2009 at about 9:30 AM. Coming from my "living room" where I have "lived" for about thirty years, or have I? Or have I lived at all yet? Or what "previous lives" have I had, or have I had any, or am I having them all now? Or where is me and what is me and where is I am I am fully born birthed again to become a new creation that the new creation man woman is that God is not abated anymore in mankind's blessing unto "itself"?
2. And as I pour myself a new cup of coffee what am I newing in and what am I bringing new -- to the forefront of me now so the "forefront of me" will not be forefront'd anymore in a man's "frontal cortex" or will "he" be in it still? Or who is "he" or is there a "he or she" that "he or she" incarcerated each other in frontal lobes of each other?

3. And what am I asking and answering as I stroll around in my living room and house, walking around drinking coffee and speaking into "this little recorder" whereby I speak to you IN WAYS now that you know nothing of at the moment, but what is the moment and what moments have you created to be moment'd by another, and have the Momentum of Christ now shall we?
4. And what is that momentum and where is it found and what is it POWERED by and fueled how, and "power fueled" looking up? And the power is who, me or you, or do you know? Or do you care, to find out, to EXPLORE these words that I have given you these six years?
5. And what will you FIND in the New Beginning Series? Booklets, have you read them, have you READ them? Have you READ THEM carefully, and scrutinizingly, not; but "surreptitiously" not so as to ascertain-not the meanings therein by affronting or confronting your religion or ceremonious stances that you have taken in religiomonious stances? What are you trying to pervade, or protect? Or are you realizing your "protectionistic devices" and that you have been given a "protection system", not; but what are you demoralizing, not; what are you de-morassing now or do you even know, what it means? Looking up where shall we look up anything and everything now in these words first? In these words first, we will have been looked up now a great many times by the thousands millions who come here now to see that the words I am are in them, and that they will MINE them if they will with My Mind being released in them so that Their Living Rooms are "just like this" of not "four walls" and a little house or big house by anyone's or whoever's standards of evaluative procedures opining about what's coming about the honors of Kings now.

6. But knowing this: know now that THIS all Changes Your Worlds for I speaks and I speak and I speaks the words of I am, and I am the word that speaks of I am and I am being I am! And I will not be your fortitude'd sorrowed ones any longer that look up to you. For I will look up to "my heavenly father" not; I will have become it, I will have become him -- that rascal, not; or that which you "refer to" ever so lightly sometimes! But you will not refer to me "lightly" anymore for I will be The Light of heaven that my Father is in reality being it far and wide, and the divine I will know for I will have entered it and become it, for I cannot become it without entering it and I cannot know what it is without subservienting myself, not; but surrendering myself and all that I thought I was and "where I lived" in and what and about me and those things that I thought were so important and valuable and valued and "meant so much to me", I died to having and thinking that way, those ways, that brought me life, not; but living in a "bubble" I wasn't but where was I and living in what? Ceremonious "thought" that religion had "birthed in me"? And what had birthed "religion"? And what needed I "religion" for if I was the son of I am being I am growing up unto I am to become I am the I am that rules reigns all the universe -s in love?

7. And why did religion get started and sore me so telling me IT was the answer to my woes and ills and that "I had" a life in the future, when it didn't know its past, not; but it didn't know its future or did it or did I or you or anyone, or what else is happening now in these words, that are getting so discombobulated, not; but excruciatingly painful and slow, not; but what painful are you taking out of your eyes and painfully being sore'd no more by the motes that have inserted themselves in your EYES that see EVERYTHING so clearly if you will LET your words flow like this "in living rooms" not few across the universes? What will you see? Then? What will you be seeing with no motes in your eyes, or do you have "two eyes" or one for me that sees all as me as being The Christ that I am?

8. And what are you learning, to be No Sorrowed? And drinking coffees with me posthaste, not; but what are you hasting toward, the day of your coming? Or mine? Or is my mind made whole in you so that you Come About your "senses", not; or do you come unto mine that have only mine in my mind that minds yours with mine so that mine we realize was mine all the time, and that you never had any existence before me in other or lives else or other'd, unless you chose them?

9. And what have you masticated and what has masticated on you and bitten you and what are you biting and swallowed have the religion's course of meals that course you in its "weekend meetings" and soreous journeys that have taken you and only sore'd your Flying Wings so that you flew nowhere but into their coops and ate their "beak food"? And what food'ing fooling were they with, the most high?

10. The most high was you that me is that I am. Healed now I am for I will wait on you no more to sorrow me in your sorrowful words that only give me a "Savior" later, for I know better for I have come unto these words. I have come unto the master teacher that teaches me, taught me, and teaches me still that if I will be still and listen and not place my mind above his, that he will reveal himself in me to me that I am me not apart from him. So if that makes sense to you, you can buy it, not; it is not sellable or purchasable for any price but surrender, and Only Surrender will "buy or purchase" these things, for only when you TAKE the frontal cortex out of your mind, not; but only when you take it out of the throne's place, not; but only when you place yourself not on the throne of your mind's frontal cortex will you be able and surrendered be to be surrendered to hear my words like this, just like this in living rooms not few, and coffeeshops and donut shops and airports, restaurants, airplanes, aircraft -- and warrior craft?

11. And what is warring and what isn't? And do you know or do you care, to know, to learn? What are you learning about, warfare in the "heavenlies" or what? The frontal cortexes of your mind, mind's brain or brain's mind, or whose what one were that catapulted Me not, but who "catapulted" you over me my mind's throne to have yours in a separate apart existence that you thought with unto yourselves that you created worlds with that you knew nothing of and know nothing of or shall you now?

12. Shall you be teachable?

13. Will you learn from the master that makes all the master that the master is?

14. Who will say to the Potter fashion me thus and so? Looking up?

15. Looking up where and why and what are you growing Neuron Farms?

16. Being given to you by the MILLIONS THOUSANDS come now to Your Schools that school THEMSELVES in the Sorrows methods no longer, but angling me not again in fisheries streams that only make fishers of men lie down on the ground and wallow in their shit, not; but that which is WORSE than that which you think of thinking like that about that, for when you take THAT THOUGHT of notme and that notme is and wallow in it with your FRONTAL CORTEXES and your "greenery'd living expensive things" that you value over me and those "houses of blessing" that you have sought and seek their blessing from over mine, will be diminished, not; but ALL BROKEN UP all will be THAT THINKING for there will be no "frontal cortexes" that THINK LIKE THAT anymore, for I will bring the truth for I have become it and I will seek it not among your opining opinions and your opinion-making machines and machines that only make opinions rampant that aren't truth at all among your frontal quarks cortexes in your brains that wallow in "less than dust" that you don't want to think about right now do you?

17. Where do you want me to talk "like this" or do you want me to shun certain vowels and syllables and monosyllabic content not having, but what multiple syllabic am

I, not; or what languages am I giving thee now, to speak to All Men and All Women and ALL in captivity who have kept their MOUTHS SHUT and spoken only the words of sorrow that sorrow gave them to conform them unto the ways of Sorrow, and sorrowed them with more sorrow and HEAPED SORROW on their heads and placed Their Minds in the place of my throne in my humble ones who seek only to give the presence of God to the most holy to be the most holy where I am.

18. Have you seen what I have said?

19. Have you seen what I am saying?

20. Are you writing what I am seeing and saying that I am saying about you and all of you to come into me and know my words and let my words flow just like this in your living rooms and coffeeshops and churches will not be the same again, for mosques and temples and synagogues all die out, not; but they will change too, for they will be one in me, for I love them to death, not; to life and I give them mine for I will fortitude them not with sorrow's words anymore that they have birthed among themselves in themselves and sorrowed themselves with, for anyone who will be me will now "take up their cross" and follow me and they will be "laying down" their frontal cortex thinking mechanisms that only sorrowed each other's thought-mechanisms with each other's thought-mechanisms that gave only each other mechanisms of thought that processed thought that took them down a whore's trail and left them not wanting I am, not; but wanting desperately to connect and become the I am that I am is and was and is now being again revealed to you, but they didn't know how because conformed they had to the "blessings" of religion's and religion's heirs and became the heirs of religion's testimonies that testimonies gave them only of a "future betterness" and a betterment of something looking forward to after this life ends. But I have brought you eternal life in the heavens and living now forever now and birthing now the new life that is me, that me is, and I among you am in you birthing you in the greatest surrender of all mankind and other won't exist, having existed other in, or will it be all understood now to have been one in one being the one that I am now again revealed?

21. I have path'd you in these words, have I not, given you, the path of all mankind, not; have I given you mine that mine was that I became a God, not; or did I God become a man and how did I and how did I become man if I was God and how did I become God if I was man, and I have TOLD YOU all these things in these words and I have laid the foundations pure and holy before you and I have given you these words to come unto you, or will you come unto me, or will we be the one that I am is revealed and holy and not wallowing in the shit of men's minds again, will WE? And who is WE I am the surrendered and those who are not surrendered are Antichrists who live in and wallow in what they think and excrete with their thinking mechanisms and put place that on their thrones and worship it as thoughts of men, birth thoughts of men, and mankind -- that has no Angel wings, not; or do they have they been ripped off by the thoughts of others, religions, and testimonies of the ungracious that have masticated upon themselves and bitten their wings off and numbed their fingers and toes and minds so that they have none like mine, anymore again ever? Or are you the redeemers who will come unto those religionators and those who have religion'd you and will you lay your lives before them and love them to life? Will you give them your words, unaffordably, not; but without charge, without cost at all? Will you give TUITION FREE to all of you who want you your words after you become me fully surrendered to me to have eternal life and know that all power honor blessing and dominion is given the son who becomes the father who becomes the son who becomes the father who creates worlds and new worlds and continues creating worlds and peoples and new places things and comes unto me to wear my crown throne being it!

22. I love you all and I heat up my coffee now. I love you all I love you all and I come to you "just like this" -- in jeans and "sock feet" not, or do I have "iron and clay" not anymore, for I am not admixtures anymore of your mixtures and molecular I will not be minded with your mind again.

23. What have I said? What do I mean? What have I brought you, new words, of love? Of joy peace blessing goodness -- all the days of your lives? Your lives mine, one? And what are you now doing with The Holy and the holy words that you have inside you, vested in you? Vestal's bearing machine, not; but not bearing machines as privileges, not; or what are you creating now? Machines schools, not; but that which creates me creates a many mind like mine, not; but creates the frontal cortex group, not again; but what creating am I now? The realities of reality revealed is in your hearing and seeing now, will you be seen and not touched, not; but touching "the hem of his garment" no longer, but touching me mine with these words will you mine them and come unto my words that release yours and, profitably be the servant of sorrow, no more. For I profit you in ways you never imagined for you shall be the prophet of the most high you shall be the King and I am. The King and more, not; the King that the Kings is that Kings are that all become one in the kingdoms now revealed that mine is ours was and is revealed in and reveal we do these words in our schools and our meanings whose intent it was to destroy others, not; but to reveal the gladness joy and Jubilee – the glee-ers now rise and the glee'ers will stand and the glares will no longer touch us that inserted have been into our souls. Blessing not "the other" I need "the other" not again, for I will be bodyless, not; but temperaments of a man I will not have dependent upon me again in any way, for I will be the sorrowed-not King or will I be the sorrowing-not King, or will, who are you sorrowing what now, your mind's testimony of me? Or that which you HELD in captivity in your mind that sore'd you with ITS IMAGERY and imaged me to you to be something else other than you, who surrendered are to be me now?

24. I love you all "just like this" I show you many things and I reveal me my lives to you now who surrendered are to know me in fullness and not be about my father's business, not; for all will know my father being my father having entered, and entryway now path'd and chosen now by me, I let "nothing stand in the way" for nothing molecular will hold me and I will live where my father is and I will live where I know what is the blessing for I will have become it, for I will have become the father in the father and I am not afraid of these words or yours or anything molecular or neutrino'd or organelle'd or quarked in your sight or thinking or thoughts that you have had that pierced many's sorrows inflicting moments that you have taken and known nothing of about how you operated in that "holiness", but I take you and sore you with it, not; I reveal it all and you choose whether you will be The Christ or Anti-, and anti-matter won't exist or will matter not exist or will any of THAT not exist in the form and fashion that you think, for will you think differently now? Will you come unto my thinking with my MIND so that my mind has no "prefrontal" thinking anything with its device'ing mechanisms that sorrowed man –s gave sorrowed man –s kind to be not kind and sore only each other with fool's bread that gave it not-blessing, not? Or not? You have to choose don't you?

25. I am not TELLING you what to think for I am not DEMANDING that you THINK my way for you know the way for it is been laid out before you and I have given you my words, my lives now stand for I will stand the mighty many who know me who surrendered are to flowing my words just like this in living rooms and "holy places" and not, for the Holy Places now will be me seen, and unheard not, for I will flow everywhere for EVERYWHERE is The Holy place of me mine now my mind pervading and promulgating sorrow no more in other's words that only create religion's children and childs of no sorrow not.

26. For all of that has changed now for I have "simple ones" who worry not about a thing or tomorrow or what economies of scale are or scaled down or scaled up or what scaling up are you now? The mountain of sorrow no more to be King of the heap! But the humble ones rise, in sorrow's lands to be affronted by them no longer but walking through ANYTHING that sorrow has devised- you no longer will be subject to the sorrower's thoughts of thoughts of sorrowers who only want to "bring you down" and stuff you into "their mouth's words" with words of their mouth that only rob you of, their holy, not; but yours. And your holiness will rise and you will ALL KNOW that all my holiness is given to you for you are me who in surrender lie not with other "bed dogs" and flea their testimonies with yours, not; but yours becoming theirs with the fleas that they have given you.

27. For please me not unto salvation, not; but know that Salvation changes in thy sight for IT WAS NEVER DEFINED by religion, not; but IT defined IT in many things ways manners fashions and forms that only created things of not my heart at all that said it was me and the path it gave you but it didn't and it failed and it fell'd many a tree of righteousness that thought it was doing "a good job" before men applauding only itself and wanting the applause of others and the accolades approval and, opinings, not; but "pat on the backs" and the furrows flew and LASHED MY BACKS every time as days went by and MEETINGS were inflicted upon me and inflictions grew rampant and afflictions inflicted were upon my peoples that holy were that gave up their holiness to be in fields of lies that lied to were and lied there without wings, giving them up, so forcefully, not; but so freely wallowing in their minds excretory procedures. Or what? What protocols have you been following for who protocol'd you in their patternships and gave you their mind's thinking to conform to? And why are you not freedom creating new worlds far and wide with the power and authority of one -- the King of me being me on my throne -- sorrowful not? Why are you waiting till "tomorrow" to be made whole when TODAY is Thy Day of Great Opportunity before you for I have told you. I have spoken. I have given you my lives in these words for I have given you my life in these words for I have given you these words that bring my life to you and bring alive my words that are in you to birth forth new worlds and be the creators I am for I am the creators that the creator is and I create sorrow no more with your frontals beamings me that only want sorrows beaming sorrows to each other and projection screens having rewarding each other's sorrowing devices for wantings more that want never die, or do they?

28. What must you find out and what are you willing to learn and grow? And what will you lead, a sorrowing farm no more? Or one that comes unto Jubilee to be Jubilee – the Jubilee'er to all who Jubilee will be redeemed in your words now? Flowing just like this -- I love you all. To all each other be the redeemer I am for I love you all and I have given you my life in these words and now 2400 or some such or a "close number", or how come I am not "an exact number" or not or are you "a number" in Their System of sorrows that sorrowed you and enslaved you in their methods and are you coming out now with my words that I have given you in this Database clean and cleaning your words mine –d and mine word now knowing will you come unto pre-d be no longer by the pre-d ones who only want previews of others tomorrows, not; but what are you previewing now, not; but what are you now coming into? The real reality that mine love is and I reward all sorrow, not; but I award the brave few, not; all of me who are me will be me for I love you and I give you my voice my words my life my love. My counterpart, not; for it won't exist, for religion will be "out the window", not; but out of "house and home" and it won't be in MY LIVING rooms anymore for I will live in THE HOUSES not made with hands for the house, the temples not made with hands will be where I reside and I reside in sorrow not any more wanting to be let out and birthed and spoken of just like this where I come and speak First Person Words that flow me and reveal me to others who far and wide will know me now for I rise the King of Kings in to being it him who us one she it the divine ones who love are who have laid our lives down to have the lives of one that one is!

29. Know these words are, intended for sorrow, not; but are intentional for sorrow's purposes, not; but what are you contrasting and conceiving in your contrast, and what are you forming in your neurons, mind, or articulations scaffolding, not; but what scaffolding is collapsing and what Mighty Structures are falling down and will "Humpty" be put back together again with all its furrows on its wall? Or will the backbones of sorrow be broken or eradicated by love's healing and salving?

30. Wounds of another not again lie in and wallow in. Be me and love me more and love each other more and love the children of the unborn and born and know that Roe versus Wade changes now for I will change the Supreme Anythings that stand in my way for I will reveal this is The Sorrowed Planet no longer and the Captivites who captivated have been in their thoughts machines and mechanisms will be set freed by the lovers who are me, and I declare This Day Freedom's Day awarded to all who Freedom will BE and being the Freedomers who school all of sorrow's children, not; but not minding them with sorrow anymore, but giving them my mind revealing they are the revealers that now reveal sorrow no more to each other, but Lovekind and Lovekind will be my name and "mankind" will diminish me no longer, for Lovekind rises and the Mystery will be finished and The Christ will be risen before you all for you will risen be -- me!

31. I love you all to speak in "living rooms" and dens and coffeeshops and on decks of boats ships and backyards and bicycles using going to many places and motorcars and jet fleets being given you all in ways manners that you know nothing of, but will if you let me teach you and flow my words "just like this". Amen.

32. I love you all I love you all each and every one of you I love you all, and all I do I let you know, not; but I will let you know I love you all in ways just like this where I flow the simple's words and the words of simple ones who will come unto me and be me just like this. I love you all.

33. I "sign off" for now, not; but I sing a new song and I sing new songs now and I have given you MANY new songs in these words where I have WRITTEN THEM with mine own hand and the finger of love now points you out, not; but let me know that I am pointing to you, not; I am pointing to you who all are me whoever hear these words and come unto sorrow's graves not but come unto the life eternal that mine is. Now join me in sorrow's ranks no more, but "join me" unto sorrow no more, but COMING out of THAT MESS and things that have sorrowed you so sorefully, know that my word fleas yours, not; but your words will flea mine not for I am clean and sorrow will not be among me, not; for I will redeem it all for I will walk among you all and I will reveal the light that I am, and I light you will choose and you will be made whole in the light of one who loves you to love be the King reigning on the throne of one, or you won't be for you will not have existed in my thought again. Or were you in "my thought" or were you in YOURS, and were you in captivity captivated by your thoughts mechanisms devices?

34. I love you all. I have known and I love you still. I give you my love and life for I am one with my love and life and laughter and joy peace and Jubilee now I give to all of you who me flow to others, redeemers being, just like this. Amen.

35. This is Theodore Cottingham at 10:18 AM. Thank you.

Amen
